

1. In the mid 1700's, the way goods were made began to change. This historic development is called the _____.

2.

Before the Industrial Revolution	After the Industrial Revolution
Most people worked in homes or workshops.
People made the things they needed by hand.
Businesses were small.

3. This new technology (machines) which began in Britain 1st appeared in the United States in New England because:

- a.
- b.
- c.
- d.

4. The American inventor from Massachusetts, _____, 1st invented the _____ and then the concept of _____.
Although he did not get a _____ on the cotton engine fast enough and never made any money off of it, he did get one on his 2nd idea.

5. British technology first came to Pawtucket, Rhode Island, because mechanic _____ memorized the British machine and with capitalist Moses Brown set up the 1st factory in the U.S.

6. The person who started the 1st factory system was _____ in the _____ industry.

7. Capitalism (free enterprise system) is the economic system of the U.S. The 4 main elements (parts) of it are:

- a.
- b.
- c.
- d.

8. During the Industrial Revolution, where did new cities develop?

9. Life in the cities:

GOOD:	BAD:

10. Life in the mills (factories):